The girl with clay feet

cultural mediation project

TEATRO E MARIONETAS DE MANDRÁGORA

Teatro e Marionetas de Mandrágora is a professional puppet theater company, founded on 2 April 2002, directed by Clara Ribeiro and Filipa Mesquita and enVide neFelibata as art direction.

■ In the symbiosis of a symbolic language that combines heritage and traditional legacy with the contemporary society's thinking and dynamics, in a dialogue that's not always peaceful, a fundamental element emerges: the puppet — the tool used in our quest for our own cultural identity.

■ Our goal is to discover the puppet's own aesthetic, visual, scenic, and dramatic potential, as well as in the relation between actor and puppet. In this experience, we intend to find our own identity-based dramaturgy: the one that explores culture, belief, and folklore combined with the urban area, the technological exploitation and the global village's fast pace.

■ Throughout our artistic journey, we created a wide range of proposals, both in terms of audiences (adults, youngsters schoolchildren, families) and in terms of training (basic and specialized).

■ One of our major commitments is touring our projects, through the country and abroad. We constantly concern on decentralization, community work, partnerships, social and inclusive enhancement.

■ For over two decades, the Company firmly established itself as a contemporary artistic creation structure by putting on a wide range of shows. Some creations our own, others resulted from partnerships with national and foreign cultural structures and entities.

■ Our team has always had space to freely create according to each other's language and vision, converging to develop and enrich the puppet theater's art.

■ Our Company focuses on social vulnerabilities but also traditions and heritage through different but converging sights. Dialogue with all different audiences, blend our creations with sites and spaces, intersect with partner entities and structures is essential for creating multidisciplinary projects that prioritize communication with spectators.

■ We would like to highlight our collaboration with numerous educational service teams while implementing our education activities program in institutions such as monuments, museums, and landmark buildings.

PRESENTATION

One day I was walking and came across a little figurine, broken and dusty, bearing the marks of time. Where did it come from? How did it get there? If it could speak, what would it tell me? I stood there staring at it; from the very first moment, I wanted to get to know this little figurine—its story, who had brought it to life, where it had traveled. I blew on it as if breathing life into it, and I was enchanted by the world it revealed to me—the most beautiful journey through a time, through a place. This little figurine was made of earth and water; once, someone had held it gently in their hands, breathing life into it. Just as I had breathed on it, it had lived beyond time.

THEATER IN INSTITUTIONS

Since 2003, Teatro e Marionetas de Mandrágora has acted as a strategic partner in cultural mediation, implementing educational services that utilize puppetry as a vital tool for dialogue.

Our institutional programs are widely disseminated across the country, providing venues with pedagogical tools designed to bridge the gap between institutions and their visitors. These are sensory-driven performances that invite the audience to engage through participatory contemplation.

By promoting Educational Service programs through the art of puppetry, we establish a unique rapport with the public. We aim to foster a global mindset—encouraging audiences to reflect, ponder, and, above all, cultivate new cultural habits. Integrated into heritage promotion and the decoding of artistic languages for young audiences, this project champions the puppet as a powerful vehicle for communication and learning within educational settings.

TESTIMONIALS

New cultural mediation project.

Increasingly, cultural institutions—museums, monasteries, castles, etc.—feel the need to become vibrant, accessible, and communicative spaces, appealing to creativity and the public, and drawing visitors in. To this end, puppetry combined with history and heritage has proven to be a highly rewarding endeavor, complementing each institution's own programming and fostering broader communication with the public. Since 2003, we have collaborated with various institutions to implement long-term programs and activities.

We feel that these initiatives have successfully taken root and expanded within the framework of our Educational Services, both because of the segment of visitors who consider them an integral part of their visit and because of the recreational, artistic, and educational role they have come to play in the space and the surrounding heritage.

We believe that institutions can benefit from this project by expanding the scope of historical and heritage reconstruction in the surrounding areas and enabling a broader audience to enjoy the spaces and the historical content that the project has helped to preserve.
